SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA (Andhra Pradesh): Madam, on a point of order.

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN: Madam, from that day till today the lives of the people in Tamil Nadu, especially women, are not safe in the State.

SHRI MURASOLI MARAN: Are we discussing the conduct of the State Government or the statement of the Prime Minister? (Interruptions)

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: A point of order, Madam. It was agreed in the Chairman's room ... (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I have allowed the point of order. Let me be heard.

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: Madam, it was agreed in the Chairman's room that Mr. Maran would make a statement, would demand a statement from the Prime Minister, a clarification from the Prime Minister, and the Government would respond.

You have called Mr. Kamal Morarka to respond. If you allow the other Member, then, you will have to allow all the party leaders. That will become a debate. (Interruptions) Let Mr. Morarka say that. When the Prime Minister comes we can express our views. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Just a minute. I have to answer the point of order.

SHRI S. K. T. RAMACHANDRAN: The people of Tamil Nadu are in panic. (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I am trying to make him sit down. (Interruptions) वाजपेयी जी आपकी आवाज तो सुनाई नहीं देती । (व्यवधान)

श्री अटल बिहारी वाजपेयी : आप इधर देखिये, उधर क्यों देख रही हैं । (व्यवधान)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Natarajan, now that Mr. S. K. T. Ramachandran has spoken on your behalf, everything is over. अटल जी बोलिए । (Interruptions) This is not the way. (Interruptions)

SHRI S. K. T. RAMACHANDRAN: Unless the Tamil Nadu Government is dismissed, I will sit here in Dharna. (Interruptions)

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: Who are you to decide the fate of our people? (Interruptions)

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The House is adjourned for fifteen minutes.

The House then adjourned for fifteen minutes at thirty-one minutes past eleven of the clock.

The House reassembled at fifty minutes past eleven of the clock.

The Deputy Chairman in the Chair.

..REFERENCE ..TO THE PRIME MINISTER'S REMARKS ON SITUATION IN TAMIL NADU—Contd. ..

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Just now it is Mr. Malaviya's turn.

पेट्रोलियम और रसायन मंत्री तथा संसदीय कार्य मंत्री (श्री सत्य प्रकाश मालवीय) : उपसभापति जी, सुबह जैसा कि नेताओं की बैठक में सभापति जी के समक्ष तय हुआ था, मैंने श्री मारन की बात को सुन लिया है और जो भी समय आप तय करेंगी उस समय प्रधान मंत्री जी सदन में आ करके अपनी बात को रख देंगे ।

SHRI A. G. KULKARNI: Madam, I want to submit on this....

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: No, you cannot submit on this.... (Interruptions)...

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN: Madam: I want to raise a point of order. ... (Interruptions) ...

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: There is no business. There is no point of order.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I have permited her. ... (Interruptions) ... It is a different matter. You just sit down. I permitted it.

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: When is the Prime Minister coming?

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You left it to me.

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: We want to know when is the PM coming. I request you to adjourn the House until the Prime Minister comes.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I will find out.

SHRI MURASOLI MARAN: We should know when the Prime Minister is coming. Today is the last day of the session.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Okay, I will find out. Let me go to my Chamber and discuss with the Prime Minister's office and whatever time is convenient to him and to the House. ... (Interruptions) ... Please go back. ... (Interruptions) ... I said you go back. ... (Interruptions) ...

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: You adjourn the House until the Prime Minister comes and gives his statement. That is a very important matter. We cannot discuss anything else. Let him come and clarify. ... (Interruptions) ...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please listen to me. ... (Interruptions) ... It was decided... (Interruptions) ...

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: Yon kindly direct the Government and let the Prime Minister come right now and he can come right now and give a clarification. Kindly adjourn the House until the Prime Minister comes.

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: May I make a submission? It was agreed that the Prime Minister should come first. .. (Interruptions)..

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I said, please sit down. What is this?

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: Perhaps you have forgotten; in the morning when we met the Chairman, you were also present. It was also agreed that the Prime Minister should be requested to come at eleven o'clock itself.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: No, no, it was not decided.

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM & CHEMICALS AND PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA: It was not decided.

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY: But let him come as early as possible.

SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA: You have already permitted the Deputy Chairman to fix a time for the Prime Minister's clarification and whatever time she fixes he will come ... (Interruptions) ...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gopalsamy, please take your seat.

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: Madam, I have a suggestion to make. It is a very serious issue which we should discuss in the Council of States. It relates to the Centre-State relations. It is not merely a particular Government or a particular statement. It betrays an attitude towards that particular issue, the Centre-State relations. So it should be discussed in the Council of States. We are entitled to discuss this matter. Let there not be any misunderstanding between the Centre and the States whether it is Tamil Nadu, Assam or any other State. Today is the last day of the session. It is good that Mr. Malaviya has agreed that as soon as a time is fixed, the Prime Minister would come and make a statement. The time should be fixed in such a manner so that a leader from each party at least can take part in that discussion following the PM's statement.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: That is the procedure of the House. There is nothing new about it.

SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: The Prime Minister should make himself available. Till that time we can really have a meaningful debate and discuss on this issue without making hullabaloo. .. (Interruptions) ...

SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: Madam, I again repeat, let the House be adjourned until the Prime Minister comes and clarifies. .. (Interruptions) ...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Just a minute, please sit down. ... (Interruptions) ... Let me be heard. I said, sit down. I said, let me be heard. .. (Interruptions) ... I will not adjourn the House, I can assure you. There is a lot of business to do and I wil go through the business. Don't push me around. I am warning you. I will allow the entire business to go on now and then if there is sufficient time for us, we will allow the Prime Minister. (Interruptions). Go back to your seats. Enough I am not allowing anybody.

SHRI T. R. BALU: *

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: *

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I am not allowing you. (Interruptions). Don't speak to me like this. I warn you Don't speak to me like this. Don't behave like this before me. (Interruptions). Don't speak to me like this. I won't allow this. I won't adjourn the House. I will get the business done. Mr. Minister You start the Bill. (Interruptions)

*Not recorded.

Minister, you start the Bill. (Interruptions).

Nothing is going on record. Anybody speaking without my permission will not go on record.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Go back to your seats please. (Interruptions).

SHRI V. GOPALSAMY: Where is the Prime Minister?

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The Prime Minister is busy with some work in Lok Sabha. He can't come. (Interruptions). Just a minute. Listen to me. The Prime Minister is busy in Lok Sabha on the same issue. (Interruptions). Can't you keep quiet for a minute? He cannot be divided into two pieces. You go back to your seats. (Interruptions).

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS AND PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA): Madam Deputy Chairman, the Prime Minister is busy in Lok Sabha and he will come to this House as soon as he is free. (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I warn the Members, if they do not listen to me, I am going to go ahead with the other business. The Prime Mnister will come as soon as he is free.
